

Declaration in relation to complying significant investments

Form
1413D

Australian Government
Department of Home Affairs

IMPORTANT: You may wish to seek independent legal advice in relation to ensuring that an investment made for the purpose of a subclass 188 (Investor and Significant Investor streams) visa is a 'complying significant investment' within the terms of the Migration Regulations 1994, in particular, Migration (IMMI 15/100: Complying Investments) Instrument 2015.

For Investor stream applicants the Complying Significant Investment must include:

- a total of at least AUD500,000 in one or more venture capital funds; and
- a total of at least AUD750,000 in emerging companies investments.

Any remaining portion of the investment may be invested in one or more balancing investments and/or either of the above.

For Significant Investor stream applicants the Complying Significant Investment must include:

- a total of at least AUD1,000,000 in one or more venture capital funds; and
- a total of at least AUD1,500,000 in emerging companies investments.

Any remaining portion of the investment may be invested in one or more balancing investments and/or either of the above.

The complying significant investment allows for investments to be made via a fund of fund structure. Declarations are to be made by the declaring fund manager for the fund which has overarching control of the investment.

This form is relevant to subclass 188 (Investor and Significant Investor streams) visa applications invited on or after 1 July 2021.

For applications lodged before 1 July 2015, please use form 1413 Declaration in relation to managed funds.
