

Application for a New Zealand Citizen Family Relationship (subclass 461) visa

The Department of Home Affairs (the Department) acknowledges that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are the traditional custodians of the Australian land.

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. Once you have completed your application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Life in Australia – Australian values

The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia.

This includes understanding that the English language, as the national language, is an important unifying element of Australian society. Australian society is also united through the following shared values:

- respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual;
- freedom of religion (including the freedom not to follow a particular religion), freedom of speech, and freedom of association;
- commitment to the rule of law, which means that all people are subject to the law and should obey it;
- parliamentary democracy whereby our laws are determined by parliaments elected by the people, those laws being paramount and overriding any other inconsistent religious or secular 'laws';
- equality of opportunity for all people, regardless of their gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, race, or national or ethnic origin;
- a 'fair go' for all that embraces:
  - mutual respect;
  - tolerance;
  - compassion for those in need; and
  - equality of opportunity for all.

The Life in Australia booklet provides more information on the values that Australians share and their way of life. This booklet is available in a wide range of languages and can be obtained from www.homeaffairs.gov.au

You are encouraged to read the Life in Australia booklet before completing this application form. If you have difficulty, or are unable to read the booklet, you may have the content of it explained to you, for example, by a friend or relative. This form contains a declaration, that you must sign, that confirms you understand and will undertake to conduct yourself in accordance with the values of Australian society (as explained in the booklet) and will obey the laws of Australia.

This declaration must also be signed by each person aged 18 years or over, who is included in this form.

About this visa

The New Zealand Citizen Family Relationship (subclass 461) visa is a temporary visa for members of the family unit of some New Zealand citizens* who are not New Zealand citizens themselves.

This visa:

- is valid for 5 years;
- permits unlimited travel to and from Australia;
- does not require formal sponsorship or nomination; and
- does not include any work or study restrictions; but
- may include either or both conditions 8303 and 8501.

Condition 8303 states you must not become involved in activities disruptive to, or violence threatening harm to, the Australian community or a group within the Australian community.

Condition 8501 states you must maintain adequate arrangements for health insurance while you are in Australia.

About this application

This form may be used by both primary and secondary applicants.

A secondary applicant for this application is a member of the family unit of the primary applicant.

Your application for a New Zealand Citizen Family Relationship (subclass 461) visa is not valid if you currently hold a criminal justice entry visa, a domestic worker visa, or if you are a detainee who has not made an application within the prescribed time limits, or if you hold a visa subject to a condition that prevents the grant of a substantive visa while you remain in Australia.

Including family members in your application

In your visa application you will be asked for information about each member of your family unit even if they do not intend to migrate with you. Information about which family members are considered to be a 'member of your family unit' for migration purposes is available by referring to form 1496i Including family members in your application. Form 1496i is available from the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/citizenship/certificate/get-a-certificate#Eligibility. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1496i before completing this form.

* The New Zealand citizen must:

- hold, or be eligible for, a Special Category (subclass 444) visa (SCV); and
- not be an eligible New Zealand citizen; and
- not be an Australian citizen also. If the New Zealand citizen was born in Australia to New Zealand parents, they may be Australian citizens. See further information here: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/citizenship/certificate/get-a-certificate#Eligibility>.

An eligible New Zealand citizen is a person who is defined as a 'protected SCV' holder under the Social Security Act 1991.

Protected SCV holders are those who arrived in Australia on a New Zealand passport and were:

- in Australia on 26 February 2001;
- in Australia for at least 12 months in the 2 years immediately before 26 February 2001; or
- assessed as protected SCV holders before 26 February 2004.

Integrity of application

The Department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programmes. In relation to this application, if you or a member of your family unit:

- provide, or have provided in a previous application, fraudulent documents or false or misleading information (knowingly or not); and/or
- fail to satisfy, or have failed to satisfy in a previous application, the Minister of your or their identity;

this visa application may be refused and you, and any members of your family unit, may become unable to be granted a visa for specified periods of time, as set out in migration legislation.

If documents are found to be fraudulent or information to be incorrect after the grant of a visa, the visa may subsequently be cancelled.

Visa Application Charge

Refer to Part K – Payment details of this form to calculate the correct charge.

Refer to <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/fees-and-charges> for a complete and current list of applicable fees and charges.

Fees and charges may be subject to change at any time and this may increase the cost of a visa application.

Generally, Visa Application Charges are reviewed on 1 July each year, and the exchange rates used to calculate the amount payable in a foreign country are updated on 1 January and 1 July each year.

If you do not pay the full Visa Application Charge amount, your visa application will not be valid.

Charges are generally not refundable, even if the application is withdrawn or refused.

Method of payment

Make your payment electronically through the 'My Payments' section of ImmiAccount. Sign into, or create, your ImmiAccount and select My Payments>Manage Payments>Pre-Pay Paper Service, at www.homeaffairs.gov.au/immiaccount

If you are outside Australia and cannot pay online in ImmiAccount check the Department's website for alternative payment methods for your location www.homeaffairs.gov.au/locations

Health insurance requirements

You may be required, as a condition of this visa, to maintain adequate private medical and hospital health insurance while in Australia. This insurance cover does not have to be held with an Australian insurer – arrangements made in your home country may be assessed as being acceptable. You need to ensure your health insurance cover will provide for medically necessary treatment for the entire period of your stay.

The above condition may not apply if you are covered by reciprocal health care arrangements with your home country. You will be advised by a case officer if you are required to arrange private health insurance.

How to apply

Step 1 – Complete this application

Please open this form using Adobe Acrobat Reader. Either type (in English) in the fields provided or print this form and complete it (in English) using a pen and BLOCK LETTERS.

If you need more space to answer questions or wish to provide additional relevant information, attach a signed and dated sheet giving the required details.

Any alterations made before you lodge the form must be initialled and dated.

You will need to supply 2 recent passport-sized photographs of each person included in your application.

Step 2 – Lodge your application

When lodging your visa application, please ensure you have:

- completed ALL questions in this form; and
- included evidence the correct Visa Application Charge has been paid; and
- included any additional attachments (if required); and
- included the checklist.

For additional documentary requirements and the checklist refer to the Department's website

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/new-zealand-citizen-family-relationship-temporary-461>

Send your application along with all accompanying documents by post to:

New Zealand Family Relationship visa application
GPO Box 9984
SYDNEY NSW 2001
AUSTRALIA

What happens after you lodge the visa application?

In Australia

If you are in Australia when you lodge your application, this form also serves as an application for a bridging visa class A, C or E, depending on which one you may be eligible to apply for.

If you need to travel outside Australia before your application is decided, you should contact the processing office regarding a bridging visa that would enable you to return to Australia.

For information on bridging visas, refer to the information form 1024i Bridging visas available from the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/

Your bridging visa will usually have the same work conditions as your existing visa. If you are seeking to change the work conditions which will apply to your bridging visa before this application is decided, you should apply on form 1005

Application for a bridging visa available from the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/

This form should be sent by post to the New Zealand Family Relationship Centre.

In and outside Australia

Once a decision has been made on your application, you will be notified of that decision in writing.

If your application is refused, you will be given reasons for the refusal as well as information about review rights.

Residential address

You must provide the address of where you intend to live during the period that your application is being considered. Failure to give your residential address will result in this application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Let the Department know if you change your address

If you change your residential address for more than 14 days while your application is being processed, you must tell the Department your new address and how long you will be there. The Department will send communication about your application to the latest address for correspondence you have provided.

Communication about your application can be sent to another person that you have authorised, but you will be taken to have received the communication that the Department sends to that person. The Department must be informed (in writing) of any address change for either you or your authorised person.

Passport information

Most visa applicants will be required to hold a valid passport before they can be granted a visa. It is strongly recommended that the passport be valid for at least 6 months.

If you change your passport after you have been granted the visa you must update your new passport details with us.

See <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/change-in-situation/passport-details>

If you do not provide us with the details of any new or additional passports you use to travel to Australia, you may experience significant delays at the airport and may be denied permission to board your plane.

Do NOT send your passport with your visa application.

Provide with your visa application a scan or photograph of the page from your passport showing your photo and details. We will advise you if your application has been approved. Please keep a copy of the Visa Grant Notification in a safe place for your reference.

Important information about privacy

The Privacy Act 1988 contains 13 Australian Privacy Principles which regulate the way that the Department collects and handles personal information. Information about how the Department collects, uses and discloses personal information for its key functions can be found in form 1442i Privacy notice. More information about the Department's general information handling practices (including form 1442i) can be found in the Department's Privacy policy at <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/access-and-accountability/our-commitments/privacy>

What is immigration assistance?

A person gives immigration assistance if he or she uses, or purports to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist a person with matters related under the Migration Act 1958.

The most common times assistance is provided is during visa application processes, visa cancellation processes or sponsorship processes (including monitoring or sanctions).

Note: Immigration assistance does not include simply filling in an application form, translating or interpreting or passing on information about an application without comment or explanation.

Registered migration agents

A registered migration agent is a person who is registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (OMARA) to provide immigration assistance.

If operating in Australia, migration agents must be registered with the OMARA.

Information on registered migration agents, including how to find one, is available on the OMARA website www.mara.gov.au

Legal practitioners

A legal practitioner is a lawyer who holds an Australian legal practising certificate (whether restricted or unrestricted) granted under a law of an Australian state or territory.

Legal practitioners can provide immigration assistance in connection with legal practice.

Information on legal practitioners, including how to find one, is available on the Law Council of Australia website.

Information on legal practitioners can also be sought from the relevant state or territory legal professional bodies.

Exempt persons

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent or legal practitioner in order to provide immigration assistance:

- a close family member (spouse, child, adopted child, parent, brother or sister of a visa applicant);
- a sponsor or nominator for a visa applicant;
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

An exempt person must not charge a fee for their assistance. In Australia, if they do charge a fee they are committing an offence and penalties of up to 10 years jail can apply.

Appointing a registered migration agent/legal practitioner/exempt person

To appoint a registered migration agent/legal practitioner/exempt person you should complete Part J – Options for receiving written communications.

Your registered migration agent/legal practitioner/exempt person should complete form 956 Appointment of a registered migration agent, legal practitioner or exempt person.

Form 956 is available from the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/

Options for receiving written communications

If you do not appoint a migration agent/legal practitioner/exempt person you may still authorise another person, in writing, to receive written communications on your behalf. This person is called the authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The Department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To appoint an authorised recipient you should complete:

- Part J – Options for receiving written communications; and
- form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

Note: Migration agents/legal practitioners/exempt persons do not need to complete form 956A.

Form 956A is available from the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/

Consent to communicate electronically

The Department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the Department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with.

If you agree to the Department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the Department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the Department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on form 956 or 956A to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Note: Electronic communication is the fastest means of communication available and the Department prefers to communicate electronically because this results in faster processing.

Home page www.homeaffairs.gov.au

General enquiry line Telephone 131 881 during business hours in Australia to speak to an operator (recorded information available outside these hours). If you are outside Australia, please contact your nearest Australian mission.

Part M – Signatures

44 BIOMETRICS DECLARATION AND CONSENT

This declaration and consent must be signed by the main applicant and each accompanying person aged 16 years or over.

If I am requested or required to provide my fingerprints and facial image:

I consent to:

- the collection of my fingerprints and facial image; and
- if applicable, the collection of the fingerprints and facial image of each accompanying person under 16 years of age.

I declare that:

- I understand that my fingerprints and facial image and my biographical information (and those of each accompanying person under 16 years of age) held by the Department may be given to Australian law enforcement agencies to help identify me and each accompanying person, to help determine my eligibility and the eligibility of each accompanying person for grant of the visa applied for, and for law enforcement purposes.

I consent to:

- Australian law enforcement agencies disclosing my biometric, biographical and criminal record information (and that of each accompanying person under 16 years of age) to the Department for any of the purposes outlined above; and
- the Department using the information obtained for the purposes of the Migration Act 1958 or the Australian Citizenship Act 2007.

45 DECLARATION

WARNING: Giving false or misleading information or documents is a serious offence.

This declaration and consent must be signed by the main applicant and each accompanying person over 18.

I declare that:

- the information that has been provided on this form, and on any attachments to it, is complete, correct and up-to-date.
- I acknowledge that I have read the notes at the front of this application. I am aware of the conditions that may apply and that I am required to abide by them.
- any registration or licensing that is required before I can begin employment in Australia will be my responsibility.
- I am aware that I must advise the Department immediately I am aware of a change in circumstances relating to any information I have provided in or with this application.
- I understand that if condition 8501 is imposed on my visa, it will be indicated on the visa label or in documents given to me by the Department about the grant of my visa by the condition code '8501'.
- I understand that if my visa is granted it may be subject to condition 8501.
- I have read the information contained in form 1442i Privacy notice.
- I understand the Department may collect, use and disclose my personal information (including biometric information and other sensitive information) as outlined in form 1442i Privacy notice.
- I understand that if any fraudulent documents or false or misleading information has been provided with this application, or if I fail to satisfy the Minister of my identity, my application may be refused and I, and any other member of my family unit, may become unable to be granted a visa for specified periods of time.
- if documents are found to be fraudulent or information to be incorrect after the grant of a visa, the visa may subsequently be cancelled.
- I have read and understood that I am liable for the cost of any health related services that I receive while in Australia. This does not include costs otherwise covered, such as by health insurance, Medicare (if eligible), or treatment for certain community health risks such as tuberculosis.

Australian values statement

I confirm that I have read, or had explained to me, information provided by the Australian Government on Australian society and values.

I understand that Australian society values:

- respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual;
- freedom of religion (including the freedom not to follow a particular religion), freedom of speech, and freedom of association;
- commitment to the rule of law, which means that all people are subject to the law and should obey it;
- parliamentary democracy whereby our laws are determined by parliaments elected by the people, those laws being paramount and overriding any other inconsistent religious or secular 'laws';
- equality of opportunity for all people, regardless of their gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, race, or national or ethnic origin;
- a 'fair go' for all that embraces:
  - mutual respect;
  - tolerance;
  - compassion for those in need;
  - equality of opportunity for all;
- the English language as the national language, and as an important unifying element of Australian society.

I undertake to conduct myself in accordance with these values of Australian society during my stay in Australia and to obey the laws of Australia.
