

PART A Information about your application for a protection visa

Form 866 has 3 parts

Part A (this part)

- Explanatory notes on how to apply for a protection visa

Part B

- Application form to identify each person included in this application and family composition

Part C

- Personal details for each person included in this application
- A separate Part C must be completed for each person included in this application

The Department of Home Affairs (the Department) preferred lodgement method for visas is online through ImmiAccount. Creating an account is quick and easy – visit www.homeaffairs.gov.au/immiaccount/

There are a number of benefits to lodging online through ImmiAccount: you can check the status of your application, continue a saved application, attach documents to an application, update personal details, and access a copy of your online application at any time.

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. Once you have completed your application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Complete this application form if you:

- are in Australia;
- are seeking Australia’s protection; and
- have your own claims for protection; or
- are a member of the same family unit of a person who has claims for protection.

You may be granted a protection visa if it is determined that you engage Australia’s protection obligations and you and any members of your family unit included in the application meet all other requirements for the grant of a protection visa under the Migration Act 1958 and the Migration Regulations 1994.

The Department acknowledges that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are the traditional custodians of the Australian land.

Life in Australia – Australian values

The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia.

This includes understanding that the English language, as the national language, is an important unifying element of Australian society. Australian society is also united through the following shared values:

- respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual;
- freedom of religion (including the freedom not to follow a particular religion), freedom of speech, and freedom of association;
- commitment to the rule of law, which means that all people are subject to the law and should obey it;
- parliamentary democracy whereby our laws are determined by parliaments elected by the people, those laws being paramount and overriding any other inconsistent religious or secular ‘laws’;
- equality of opportunity for all people, regardless of their gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, race, or national or ethnic origin;
- a ‘fair go’ for all that embraces:
  - mutual respect;
  - tolerance;
  - compassion for those in need; and
  - equality of opportunity for all.

The Life in Australia booklet provides more information on the values that Australians share and their way of life. This booklet is available in a wide range of languages and can be obtained from www.homeaffairs.gov.au

You are encouraged to read the Life in Australia booklet before completing this application form. If you have difficulty, or are unable to read the booklet, you may have the content of it explained to you, for example, by a friend or relative. This form contains a statement, that you must sign, that confirms you understand and will undertake to conduct yourself in accordance with the values of Australian society (as explained in the booklet) and will obey the laws of Australia.

This statement must also be signed by each person aged 18 years or over, who is included in this form.

Eligibility for a protection visa

Depending on your circumstances you may be eligible for a:

- permanent Protection (Class XA) visa;
- Temporary Protection (Class XD) visa (TPV);
- Safe Haven Enterprise (Class XE) visa (SHEV).

If you wish to be considered for a SHEV, you must sign the declaration in Question 1 of Part B of this form.

Information on protection visas, including eligibility and what each visa allows you to do, is available on the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/protectionvisas

TPVs and SHEVs are temporary visas. If you hold a TPV or SHEV and wish to apply for another TPV or SHEV, you must apply online at www.homeaffairs.gov.au/immiaccount or complete form 1505 Application for a subsequent Temporary Protection visa or Safe Haven Enterprise visa.

Subsequent TPV or SHEV applications lodged on form 866 are invalid and will not be accepted by the Department.

A SHEV holder can also apply for a prescribed permanent or temporary onshore substantive visa (except a permanent Protection visa) if, for at least 42 months of the 5 years of the SHEV, they:

- were employed in regional Australia and did not receive certain social security benefits; or
- were enrolled in full time study in regional Australia; or
- a combination of the above.

Information on the meaning of 'regional Australia', 'work' and 'study' for the purpose of a SHEV is available on the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/protectionvisas

Further information on protection visas, including eligibility and what each visa allows you to do, is available on the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/shevpathways

Application bars

If you:

- entered Australia without a valid visa and/or you were not immigration cleared (as an offshore entry person or an unauthorised maritime arrival or unauthorised air arrival); or
- have been refused a protection visa since your last arrival to Australia; or
- have had a protection visa cancelled since your last arrival to Australia; or
- are a national of 2 or more countries; or
- have protection in a prescribed safe third country; or
- have ever held a Temporary Safe Haven (Class UJ) visa;

you will be prevented from making a valid protection visa application unless you have been notified that the Minister has lifted any application bar. The Minister has the power to lift any application bar if it is determined to be in the public interest. If you are affected by any application bar you will be advised.

Further information on application bars and the Minister's guidelines for lifting them is available on the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/protectionvisas

To make a valid application

The Department's preferred lodgment method is online. You can lodge this application online through your ImmiAccount at www.homeaffairs.gov.au/immiaccount

To make a valid application you must:

- pay the visa application charge electronically through the 'My Payments' section of ImmiAccount. Sign into, or create, your ImmiAccount and select My Payments>Manage Payments>Pre-Pay Paper Service, at www.homeaffairs.gov.au/immiaccount;
- be in Australia;
- provide your residential address;
- provide personal identifiers (eg. digital photograph and fingerprints);
- not be prevented from lodging an application because of any application bars; and
- complete this form and put forward reasons for claiming protection or be a member of the family unit of someone who is claiming protection.

Note: If you have not previously provided personal identifiers (biometrics) you will need to have them collected at an office of the Department. You will be sent information on what you need to do and when to have them collected. If you fail to comply with a request by the Department for personal identifier/biometrics collection, your application will become invalid.

Your immigration status

As an applicant for a protection visa you may be eligible for a bridging visa. Eligibility for a bridging visa is determined primarily by the applicant's immigration status at the time of lodging the protection visa application. Depending on your circumstances you may also be eligible for permission to work on a bridging visa. A bridging visa will give you lawful status in Australia. Further information about bridging visas is available on the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au

If you hold a valid visa you should lodge your protection visa application before your current visa expires. If your current visa expires, and you have not lodged a valid application, you will become unlawful in Australia. If you become unlawful you may be detained.

Deciding if you should apply for a protection visa

If you apply for protection and you are refused, it is unlikely that you will be able to apply for another visa while still in Australia.

If you are not a person to whom Australia has protection obligations, there may be other visas more suitable to your circumstances. More information on finding the right visa for you is available on the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au

Further information on Australia's protection obligations is available on the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/protectionvisas

Evidence and supporting documents

You should provide with your application certified copies of:

- any documents/evidence that you think will support your claim for protection;
- all pages of passports and other travel documents held by all persons in the application, including the documents you used to enter Australia; and
- any documents/evidence to support the relationship between each person in the application (eg. birth certificates, notarial certificates, marriage certificates, financial documents and undertakings for de facto relationships, financial documents to evidence that dependants over the age of 18 are dependent on you, and any other evidence to support relationships between each applicant).

Original documents that you have provided with your application will be returned to you, while the certified copies will be retained by the Department.

Documents in a language other than English should be accompanied by an English translation completed by a translator certified by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI).

All claims for protection and supporting documentation and evidence should be provided when you lodge this application. A decision may be made on the information provided in your written application and you may not be given another opportunity to present these claims.

Who can certify my documents?

For a full list of people who can certify documents/photographs please see the Statutory Declarations Regulations 1993, available from the Attorney-General's website www.ag.gov.au

Members of the family unit

A member of the family unit of someone making claims for protection can include a partner, dependent children and certain other dependants.

Members of the family unit may apply together on the same form and must all be in Australia at the time of application.

If a child is born to an applicant after an application is lodged and before a decision is made on that application by the Department, the child will be taken to be included in that application. You should promptly notify the Department of the birth of your child and provide a certified copy of their birth certificate.

More information on who is a member of the family unit is available on the Department's website

www.homeaffairs.gov.au/protectionvisas

Help with your application

Information on getting help for your application is available on the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/protectionvisas

Immigration assistance

Migration agents or exempt persons can give immigration assistance. You can access information about migration agents and exempt persons on the Department's website

www.homeaffairs.gov.au

Appointing a migration agent/exempt person

To appoint a migration agent/exempt person you should complete Options for receiving written communications in Part B of this form.

Your migration agent/exempt person should complete form 956 Advice by a registered migration agent/exempt person of providing immigration assistance.

Form 956 is available from the Department's website

www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms

Warning: Some visa applicants have been victims of scams, paying large sums of money to fraudulent immigration advisors who promise guaranteed visas.

No one can guarantee that you will receive a protection visa, or the timeframe in which your application will be processed.

Options for receiving written communications

If you do not appoint a migration agent/exempt person you may still authorise another person, in writing, to receive written communications on your behalf. This person is called the authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The Department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To appoint an authorised recipient you should complete:

- Options for receiving written communications in Part B of this form; and
- form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

Note: Migration agents/exempt persons do not need to complete form 956A.

Form 956A is available from the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms

Consent to communicate electronically

The Department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the Department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with.

If you agree to the Department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the Department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the Department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on form 956 or 956A to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Note: Electronic communication is the fastest means of communication available and the Department prefers to communicate electronically.

Important information about privacy

The Privacy Act 1988 contains 13 Australian Privacy Principles which regulate the way that the Department collects and handles personal information. Information about how the Department collects, uses and discloses personal information for its key functions can be found in form 1442i Privacy notice. More information about the Department's general information handling practices (including form 1442i) can be found in the Department's Privacy policy at <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/access-and-accountability/our-commitments/privacy>

SHEV applicants

If you are granted a SHEV and later make a valid application for a further prescribed visa, the Department may disclose your personal information to Services Australia, the Department of Social Services, the Department of Education, Skills and Employment, and other government agencies and third parties where required, in order to determine whether you meet the requirements for making a valid application for the prescribed visa.

Accessing your personal information

Under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 you or someone authorised to access information on your behalf, can apply for access to documents containing personal information. There is no fee for accessing your own information. If you are overseas, you must provide an address in Australia to which copies of documents or other records can be sent. More information on how to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 is given on form 424A Request for access to documents and/or information.

Note: Information you have submitted online can be accessed via your ImmiAccount.

86 AUSTRALIAN VALUES STATEMENT

You must sign this statement if you are aged 18 years or over.

I confirm that I have read, or had explained to me, information provided by the Australian Government on Australian society and values.

I understand that Australian society values:

- respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual;
- freedom of religion (including the freedom not to follow a particular religion), freedom of speech, and freedom of association;
- commitment to the rule of law, which means that all people are subject to the law and should obey it;
- parliamentary democracy whereby our laws are determined by parliaments elected by the people, those laws being paramount and overriding any other inconsistent religious or secular 'laws';
- equality of opportunity for all people, regardless of their gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, race, or national or ethnic origin;
- a 'fair go' for all that embraces:
  - mutual respect;
  - tolerance;
  - compassion for those in need;
  - equality of opportunity for all;
- the English language as the national language, and as an important unifying element of Australian society.

I undertake to conduct myself in accordance with these values of Australian society during my stay in Australia and to obey the laws of Australia.
