I, [name], address*, and occupation of person making the declaration, make the following declaration under the Statutory Declarations Act 1959:

1. That I have a mutual commitment to a shared life as a husband and wife, or as a de facto partner, or as an interdependent partner, to the exclusion of all others, with [name of your partner].

2. That our relationship is genuine and continuing.

3. That [name of your partner] and I:
   (a) live together; or
   (b) live separately and apart on a permanent basis.

4. That our relationship began in [year your spousal relationship commenced] and we have lived together for [number of months or years].

5. Describe financial commitments you and your partner share, for example joint/individual bank accounts, ownership of property or other major assets, pooling of financial resources and sharing of day to day household expenses.

6. Describe the nature of your household including any joint responsibility for the care and support of children, your living arrangements and sharing of the responsibility for housework.
7. Describe the social aspects of your relationship including social activities, attending special events or joint travel you and your partner undertake.

8. Describe the nature of your commitment to each other including the degree of companionship and emotional support you draw from each other and whether you see the relationship as a long-term one.
I understand that a person who intentionally makes a false statement in a statutory declaration is guilty of an offence under section 11 of the Statutory Declarations Act 1959, and I believe that the statements in this declaration are true in every particular.
